

IQAC COMPLIANCE

2016-17

- Young Leaders Club initiated their activities to inculcate leadership skills among students by organizing Guest lectures and workshops on various topics like Trading in Stock Market, Speed Reading, prospective Employee Skills, etc.
- Increase in number of publications by faculty members in top notch subject journals was observed.
- More tie ups with NGO's like Kaivalyadhama Yoga Institute, Aseema Charitable Trust, Center for the Study of Social Change, (CSSC) etc. were formed.
- National Level Seminar on B.Voc. Course on Retail in association with RASCI was successfully held on January 12, 2017. A team of 20 experts from RASCI, NSDC and Retail Industry guided over 50 participants all over India from Kashmir to Kerala.
- Yoga sessions for teaching and non-teaching members and students became a regular activity and benefitted the individuals a lot and increased their efficiency.
- A FDP was organized on September 24, 2016 on "Simulation of a Financial Market." By Meghnad Desai Academy of Economics.
- The updated notice board regarding FDP enhanced the participation of faculty members in skill developing programmes.
- A powerful Leadership Programme was designed and conducted by Edelweiss for H.R. faculty at Edelweiss House, Kalina on February 25, 2017.
- More students were benefited of contact hours of faculty due to the measures taken by IQAC in promoting the activity among students.
- A result yielding Brainstorming Session of peer mentoring programme for librarians and assistant librarians of HSNCB colleges was held at HR under the leadership of Dr. Madhuri Tikam on April 25, 2017.
- Certificate course on Dhangyan – an e-learning Financial Literacy Course by Tata Capital (December 2016) and Micro MBA by Phil Young in association with Think Education (February 2016) was offered to students.